"how impossible it is to dodge duty.
That voice belonged to the world That voice belonged to the world. But as I recalled what the struggle meant, what must be gone through before the summit is attained, I did not have the courage. Like a coward, a traitor to my art, I fled." He smiled whimsically. "But it was to be, I returned to my work, to the horrible grind. I listened to the sounds that could never be made into song, and always I was hearing the voice of the farmer boy who teased the bird.

"And my little words of encouragement had fallen upon a soul worthy of that divine voice.
